Description

Crafted for those who appreciate character, Casilla del Guapo Garnacha is made from old, low-yielding vines, hand-harvested to preserve their full character. Aged for 12 months, in French and American oak, this Garnacha offers elegance, complexity and a bold personality with a modern edge.

Winemaking

Hand-picked grapes from old vines are cold-macerated for 48 hours before fermentation at 26°C in stainless steel. After malolactic fermentation, the wine is aged for 12 months un French and American oak barrels to achieve perfect balance between fruit and oak.
